

Erasmus EuroMedia Awards 2014 – The Call is OPEN!

Deadline for Submission: July 31st, 2014

Erasmus EuroMedia Award Ceremony:
Vienna, October 9th, 2014 (Evening)

Dear Ladies and Gentleman,

As the president of the European Society for Education and Communication (ESEC)

I want to invite you to join the competition for the EuroMedia Awards in 2014!

Media can bridge gaps and foster mutual understanding for a common Europe. Therefore the Erasmus EuroMedia Awards honour media productions focusing on the development of a European society and the promotion of European values. A number of high quality educational media products have been rewarded since 1995, such as DVDs, websites, TV serials, magazines & film documentaries.

Promoting Excellence in media discourse on Europe

In 2014, an international jury of renowned experts will again evaluate productions from all over Europe and honour the most outstanding ones.

The Award goes to....

The Erasmus EuroMedia Awards honours media productions that:

- enhance the media discourse on Europe from any relevant perspective
- provide a qualitative discussion of objectives, perspectives and challenges for the history and development of European societies
- relate to European topics like: cohesion, social values, migration, identity, solidarity, culture of diversity ...
- show an educational ambition

The Call for Applications 2014 is now open. Send us your productions, products, or projects. We're looking forward to great competition in this 19th year of the Erasmus EuroMedia Awards!

Kind regards

Prof. Dr. Thomas A. Bauer, ESEC president

Categories for Awards and Medals:

A Seal for Quality: The Nomination

Besides the Awards, the nomination itself is a certificate of quality, given to all productions that meet the high standards of the ESEC jury. The respective EuroMedia Seal labels your product as certified by experts.

Medals of Excellence

ESEC awards the best European media productions with Medals of Excellence, emphasising their exceptional nature in terms of product quality and profound discussion.

and finally:

Grand Award (€ 2.000,00) for best submission in all relevant categories

The Grand Award tops all of them, as it will be given to the best media production of 2014.

Recognition of Your Work: International Coverage

Covered by news media from all over Europe, the EuroMedia Awards attract attention to your work. On the award website all nominees and winners will be presented. This will showcase the best media productions on Europe.

How to apply?

Step 1. Application Form/Submission of Production

In order to take part in the EuroMedia Awards, please complete the Application Form on the award website (www.euromediaawards.eu). The application form asks you for information on your production (media type and a short summary of your work, etc.) and the persons/organizations involved.

Step 2. Participation Fee

Please understand that ESEC has to charge a small contribution towards expenses. This fee enables us to realize the EuroMedia Awards.

Participation Fee: EUR 200,--

For a few selected media productions ESEC is able to reduce this participation fee. Please contact the president of ESEC with a summary of your media product and your organization.

Step 3. Nominated Productions

If the ESEC panel of experts nominates your production for the EuroMedia Awards (by the beginning of September, 2014), we will further ask you to submit the following (either by upload or sending it to our postal address):

- A trailer of up to three minutes (video or animated presentation) both for presentation on the EuroMedia website and during the Award Ceremony (formats: .mov, .mpg, .avi, .mp4)

More detailed information about the application process you find on our website: www.euromediaawards.eu
